Oftentimes our quiet times seem so dry and lifeless, yet this should be the last thing they should be. After all, we're communing with a loving heavenly Father who is infinitely multi faceted, and longs to relate to us in ways that fill the very depths of our heart. Time with him should reflect that depth of character, cover an infinite range of emotions, and fill us with unimaginable joy. Conversations with him would be thought provoking, loving, kind, gentle, fun, humorous, challenging, inspiring, encouraging, and a myriad of other emotions that haven't yet been mentioned. This devotional encourages you to explore your relationship with your heavenly Father in such a way, to stretch our concept of who he is, and who he wants to be beyond your usual hum drum routine.
