How does leaving a legacy apply to our lives as we follow in Jesus' footsteps? Instead of studying His ministry as book, chapter, and verse, this study will walk you through a systematic reading of what Jesus did in order of time. This means you might read the same account four times. This might raise a few questions and will answer more. The intent is to slow down and really get to know these passages intimately. This ten-week study is written for the person seeking to develop a greater understanding of Jesus and what they must do in order to see with His Vision. This is not for the faint hearted. It is for the person ready to abandon all in order to see Jesus.
