Elizabeth Abbott, Histoire universelle de la chastete et du celibat, Montreal, Fides, 2001, 620 p. (trad. de A History of Celibacy, Toronto, 1999). 30 $ Le livre risque de susciter l'ire ou le tire d'une certaine elite intellectuelle encore sous le charme de la revolution sexuelle. Le traitement du sujet est neanmoins neuf et fascinant. Il faut remercier Fides d'avoir assure l'edition francaise de cette belle synthese. Le lectorat curieux y trouvera amplement matiere a combler son ignorance. Plus abondante que la production de langue francaise, l'anthropologie historique de langue anglaise, trop peu connue des lecteurs francophones, est genereusement mise contribution. Que la production francaise soit, en revanche, tres rarement l'objet de reference est probablement une variante des deux solitudes jadis evoquees propos de l'isolement du Canada francais et du Canada anglais.
